

2010 ANNUAL MEETING OF THE CRISTO REY NETWORK:
NO MONEY, NO MISSION

April 19-22, Omaha, NE

Hosted by: St. Peter Claver Cristo Rey High School

Founded in 2003, the Cristo Rey Network® is comprised of 24 high schools that provide quality, Catholic, college preparatory education to urban young people who live in communities with limited educational options.

The Cristo Rey Network Center office works closely with the schools and helps to assure their quality by:

- ✚ Fostering the sharing of best practices,
- ✚ Coordinating a Mission Effectiveness Program,
- ✚ Offering professional development & training,
- ✚ Seeking funding and resources,
- ✚ Promoting ongoing spiritual formation,
- ✚ Accompanying graduates of Cristo Rey schools while they are in college, and
- ✚ Working with community groups in targeted cities to create more Cristo Rey schools throughout the country.

The Annual Meeting is one of the most valuable resources the Network Center office provides. Each year, over 100 school leaders gather in the host city to discuss the current state and future of the Network, as well as to share best practices with their peers.

The theme for 2010: “No Money, No Mission,” seeks to address some of the challenges our educators face in the current financial and educational climate.

Attendees at this year’s Annual Meeting will include Board Chairs, Religious Sponsors, Presidents, Work Study Directors and Development Directors from all 24 Cristo Rey schools.

One of the highlights of the week will be two keynote addresses given at Tuesday evening’s dinner, hosted by Creighton University: Fr. Schlegel, President of Creighton University; and Joe Moglia, Chairman of the Board of TD Ameritrade.

Your support of the Annual Meeting will ensure the Network Center office can provide this vital resource so that all 24 Cristo Rey Network schools will continue to work together in their mission of helping the nearly 6,000 students find success in college and beyond.
