

2016 Summit on College Success

July 11-13

Sunday, July 10
7:30pm	Welcome Activity Movie Viewing: "All the Difference" (at hotel) ●●

● Indicates suggested sessions for ● College Counselors ● Alumni Advisors ● University Partners

Monday, July 11
Breakfast @ Hotel
Participants Include: College Counselors and Alumni Advisors
8:00am	Depart Hotel for Franklin & Marshall
8:30-9:00am	Prayer Welcome Opening Remarks Introductions Setting the Stage ●●
9:00 10:00am	College Counseling Class-Time: What you need to know* ●● Facilitator TBA Increased protected class time between students and counselors result in better student outcomes. This session will discuss the practical approaches to structuring class-time for college counseling within the school day while building the right approaches to curriculum planning, classroom instruction and students' self-directed time.
10:15 12:00pm	Naviance Training for Network Collaboration ●● Rachel Zimmerman, K12 Naviance Consultant The Cristo Rey Network Naviance Consultants will be training counselors and alumni support professionals on producing network-specific data that will help counselors drive conversations with students and families. All counselors are encouraged to bring their laptops for this interactive working session.
12:00-1:00	Lunch
General Sessions: Participants select one from each time slot to attend
1:00 2:00pm	Data-Driven Counseling ●● Ken Hutchinson, Cristo Rey Network This session will focus on several user friendly online resources useful in crafting college lists, calculating graduation projections and strategies for helping 1st generation families effectively use data to drive their college decisions.	Naviance 101 ●● Sean Kruglak, K12 Hobsons Consultant All counselors who would like to increase their understanding of the basic Naviance Platform should attend this session. There will be an opportunity for Q&A with Naviance expert; walking through Family Connection, Edocs, Building College Lists, etc. Participants are encouraged to bring their laptops to this working session.	Ethics in Admissions ●● Micki O'Flynn, Cristo Rey Jesuit - Twin Cities Using the National Association for College Admission Counseling's Statement of Principles of Good Practice, participants will navigate through 12 case studies in various admissions and financial aid practices. Participants will be able to increase their awareness and familiarity with SPGP and broader issues of ethical practices.
2:15 3:15pm	University Partners Program ●● Ken Hutchinson, Cristo Rey Network This session will focus on the recent analysis, changes and restructuring of the Cristo Rey Network, University Partner Program. Participants will leave with a clear understanding of what types of colleges and universities would be ideal for the CRN national partnership program.	Engaging Boys in the College Process ●● Martinique Starnes, Verbum Dei Too often young men can be overlooked, underserved and disengaged with the college-process. This session will explore some Cristo-Rey specific qualitative research that will help us understand learning and communication styles of young men in effort to better serve them.	Risk Indicators ●● Gina King & Maya Tyler, Cristo Rey Jesuit (Baltimore) Capitalizing on the synergy between college counseling and alumni support advising, participants will understand how to think about student achievement and the socio-emotional factors that may affect college persistence. Participants will understand best practice for organizing the data that helps to prioritize student needs in an intentional way.
3:30 4:30pm	Closing Plenary Session Facilitator TBA
4:30pm	Sessions Conclude Return to Cork Factory Hotel
5:30pm	Reception with University Partners @ hotel
	Dinner on Your Own

2016 Summit on College Success
July 11-13

● Indicates suggested sessions for ● College Counselors ● Alumni Advisors ● University Partners

Tuesday, July 12
Breakfast @ Hotel
Participants Include: College Counselors, Alumni Advisors, and University Partners
8:00am Depart Hotel for Franklin & Marshall
General Sessions: Participants Select one from each time slot to attend
8:30 9:30am	100% Admissions to 4-Year Schools? Why and How? ● Jared Epler, Cristo Rey Philadelphia & Mollie Quinn, Cristo Rey New York There is always as much controversy and skepticism as there is celebration and publicity around the announcement of 100% "College Acceptance". This session will unpack the methodology behind the announcement and discuss why this is an important annual goal for all schools as well as techniques on how to make it a norm within your college-going culture.
	Alumni Support Overview ●● Ashley John, Cristo Rey Jesuit (Houston) & Yasamin Mahallaty, Cristo Rey New York This session will explore the relevance and impact of the Alumni Support Coordinator position throughout the network. Participants will understand the intentionality behind supporting students through college, persistence and graduation as well as strategies for collaborating with colleges and universities for retention and higher graduation rates.
9:45 10:45am	Counseling the Invisible Middle* ● Facilitator TBA Counseling extraordinary students with average test scores and grades can be extremely challenging. We will take a critical look at Cristo Rey specific data that shows where students within the middle ACT composite quartile find collegiate success. Participants will gain strategies and resources that will assist them in better guiding students whose academic demographics leave them in the "invisible middle" of their class.
	Preparing and Supporting Students Through the Racial Politics of College* ●● Dr. Derrick Brooms, University of Louisville Many college campuses are experiencing a heightened racial-political climate. This session will look at the recent history of on campus happenings as it relates to race, class and politics. This session will also foster critical conversations about the secondary and post-secondary institutions' role, voice and responsibility in preparing students for and supporting students through this era of being underrepresented on college campuses.
11:00 12:00pm	Affirmative Action in Higher Education ●●● Jane Genster, Cristo Rey Network & Lauralynn Lee, Georgetown University This session will focus on the history of Affirmative Action in higher education leading up to the pending Supreme Court Case Fisher V. University of Texas. There will be robust discussion about its practical implications and outcomes in efforts to understand and value diversity in a potentially post-affirmative action era.
12:00-1:00 Lunch
1:00 2:45pm	True Merit ●●● Jack Kent Cooke Foundation True Merit is a comprehensive analysis of the entire admission process and its impact on high-achieving, low-income applicants to selective colleges and universities
2:45 4:15pm	True Merit Working Group ● Facilitator TBA University Partners will have the opportunity to continue the conversation about the True Merit report and how it may shape and reshape related policies, practices, procedures and priorities .
	Recap and Action Plans: Group Working Session ●● Ken Hutchinson, Cristo Rey Network This is an opportunity for counselors and alumni counselors to have protected time to process, discuss and collaborate around major take-a-ways from the conference sessions. Participants will walk through shared decision making model to surface the priorities and major themes into a school-specific, practical action plan.
4:15 5:30pm	Break Optional Tours of Campus
5:30 8:00pm	Reception and Dinner at Franklin & Marshall

2016 Summit on College Success
July 11-13

● Indicates suggested sessions for ● College Counselors ● Alumni Advisors ● University Partners

Wednesday, July 13
7:30am	Depart Hotel for Franklin & Marshall
Participants Include: College Counselors, Alumni Advisors, and University Partners
8:00	Student and Alumni Breakfast ●●●
9:00am
9:15	Alumni Panel ●●●
10:15am
10:15	Closing Mass ●●●
11:00am
11:15am	Closing Remarks Summit Concludes Charter shuttles to the Philadelphia airport will be provided at 11:30am.